2. Message Network Model

- ° OJCS will implement the Defense Communication Agency's (DCA) pilot model of the Message Network and the required supporting software.
- ° The program tapes provided by DCA were not easily interpreted by Agency computers. Differences in operating systems and system utility programs are the source of the problem. DCA has been advised of this situation and efforts are being made to resolve the problem.
- ° OC will evaluate the utility of the Message Network Model once the statistical data now being collected by OC is included into the model by DCA.
